AARP Statement on Bipartisan Bill to Strip War Criminals of Social Security Benefits

WASHINGTON—AARP Senior Vice President Joyce Rogers released this statement in support of HR 5739, the No Social Security for Nazis Act:

“AARP supports this important bill that closes an unfortunate loophole. Though Nazi war criminals never should have been allowed benefits in the first place, it’s admirable that a bipartisan group of lawmakers have taken the necessary steps to ensure that American taxpayers don’t give another dime to these atrocious war criminals. We hope to see this bill become law as soon as possible.”
