Ms. Neena Shenai
Mr. Jason Kearns
Trade Counsels
Committee on Ways & Means
U.S. House of Representatives

Dear Neena and Jason:

Exxel Outdoors has agreed to make a change to the MTB they are pursuing regarding sleeping bags (HR 4975) by restricting it to man-made fiber shells costing $4.50 or less per shell.

With this new restriction, NCTO, in consultation with Schneider Mills, has determined that this bill will not harm members of our association.

Therefore we withdraw our objection to this bill.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
