

[Rep. Tiberi Questions for the Record pg. 61]

INSERT: PG 61B

Question: "Do you know how many taxpayers would, if we do not extend the child tax credit, would begin paying the child tax credit..."

Answer: If Congress does not act to extend the President's tax cuts, in 2011, 31 million families with children would see an increase in their taxes. The average increase among families facing a tax increase would be $1,084.
