*The statutory end date of FPUC is July 31, but that is a Friday and no state pays benefits for weeks ending on a Friday. States all pay benefits for weeks ending on a Saturday, which means the last FPUC payment will be for the week ending Saturday, July 25 (except NY which will be the week ending Sunday, July 26). For more information, see https://wdr.doleta.gov/directives/attach/UIPL/UIPL_15-20.pdf.

Data based on DOL monthly program and financial data for April 2020. All dollar amounts are rounded to the nearest dollar. All percentages rounded to nearest percentage point. Data can be found at <https://oui.doleta.gov/unemploy/claimssum.asp>.

 Data from Guam and CNMI are based on their PUA benefit rather than UC, since these territories do not have regular UC.
