

WAYS AND MEANS

KEVIN BRADY, REPUBLICAN LEADER

USMCA Makes No Changes to U.S. Immigration Law or Obligations

- USMCA complies with the prohibition in the Bipartisan Congressional Trade Priorities and Accountability (TPA) Act of 2015 against making changes to U.S. immigration law.
- USMCA maintains the NAFTA provisions on temporary entry visas that have been in place for over 25 years, with no substantive changes.