

WAYS AND MEANS

REPUBLICANS | KEVIN BRADY, REPUBLICAN LEADER

Notice of Republican Meeting

Committee on Ways and Means U.S. House of Representatives

Tuesday, July 13, 2021

Dear Republican Committee Member,

Ranking Member Brady and Ranking Member of the Worker and Family Support Subcommittee, Representative Walorski, have scheduled a meeting to be held via Webex on Tuesday, July 20, 2021 at 11 am Eastern Standard Time. WebEx information will be sent out to schedulers on Monday, July 19th.

All Ways and Means Committee Republicans are invited to participate.

Member Discussion of:

“Building on Welfare Reform’s Success: Lifting Americans out of Poverty through Opportunity and Work”

The meeting will provide an opportunity for Members to discuss the 25th anniversary of safety net reforms made by the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program, which introduced work requirements and time limits for welfare recipients. The discussion will feature key former- and current GOP leaders involved in welfare reform and Republican solutions included in the JOBS for Success Act.

Respectfully,

Gary Andres
Republican Staff Director