

Amendment to the Amendment in the Nature of a Substitute Offered by Rep. Chu

This amendment would extend the current five-year statute of limitations by six months and would provide for an additional extension to the full 10 years only if, by the end of those six months, the President either 1) reappoints to the position of DOL Inspector General the person who served in that position on January 23, 2025, or 2) appoints, and the Senate confirms, another individual to serve as DOL IG.
